School Board Chops $78,000

By Linda S. Corbett

The school committee launched its second pass at the budget Tuesday night by lopping a quick $78,300 from the maintenance expenses, then lauded Plant Engineer Al Hart for his efforts to bring costs down.

Hart had further cost savings in mind when he asked the committee to add two workers to his department — a full-time painter and a mechanic's helper. Those positions will be considered next Tuesday when the committee takes up the salary portion of the expense budget.

Hart said the two new employees could take over many of the jobs now farmed out to outside contractors at three to four times the cost. He said there is enough painting work at West Jr. High alone to keep a painter going for a year, and said it is part of his plan to "dress up" buildings both on the outside and inside.

A major cut of $16,000 came in the area of fuel oil, due to a predicted stabilizing of the oil market and savings in consumption. Hart has already made an effort toward cutting back.

However, Hart said it is more difficult to cut back in the area of electricity, since there is more of a people element involved with turning off lights, and an increase in rates will raise that expense next year.

Chairman David Ahouse said he felt the public should know how much Andover High costs, and pointed out that that school is the biggest consumer of electricity — $115,000 a year — largely because of

Bancroft Roof Sound But A Major Problem

Townsmen Gets Top Award

By Robert E. Finneran
and
Linda S. Corbett

The Andover Townsman received top honors at the annual awards banquet of the New England Press Association last Friday night during the NEPA annual winter convention at the Sheraton Boston hotel.

Best color advertisement among New England Weekly newspapers was presented to the paper for its presentation of a color ad by Olde Village Flower Shop which ran at Christmas time a year ago.

Judges found the advertisement to have proper color display, along with good use of headline type to appealingly present its message with impact.

A plaque from Metro Business Services, was presented to the TOWNSMAN for the award.

The message was during the Christmas season and contained red ribbons on a wreath, with red poinsettias, other flower pieces and the store name.

The award was the second major honor accorded the TOWNSMAN in the annual newspaper contest in as many years. A year ago Robert E. Finneran, editor, received an award for best column among weekly newspapers.

Attendance at the 29th annual meeting and convention of newsmen from the six-state area was marred by the weekend storm with the over 700 anticipated cut in half by inability of publishers, editors and advertising representatives to get into Boston.

Also prevented from attending due to the storm on Friday and Saturday were

The Bancroft school roof is structurally sound, but the building faces large structural remedies, according to engineers and school officials.

Youngsters were given a day off from classes on Tuesday to allow work to go onto the roof and remove the six to eight feet of snow which had accumulated from the weekend storm. The release from classes was not due to fears of the roof caving in, but rather to allow workmen to proceed with the snow removal operations without causing disturbance.

Also, the melting snow had caused severe leaking problems in the upper loft area, a problem not uncommon to the school.

Jack Coyle, principal of the school, said Tuesday that engineers had looked at the roof and ceilings and declared that they were structurally sound. The problem of slight bows in the ceiling was from the heavy accumulation of snow which had to be removed with steamers and other equipment.

Such activity would cause considerable disturbance to classroom activity, thus it was decided to call off classes for the day. Teachers, however, did report for work.

Classes at the school conducted by the Recreation/Community schools department were held there Tuesday night.

Principal problem stems from the high pitched roofs on the building descending into valleys, thus providing for accumulation. Snow weights the problem. Rainfall creates leaks when it gathers in the valleys and cracks where two pitched roofs join.

Supt. of Schools Kenneth R. Seifert said Tuesday the problem is one which seeks

New Food Co-op Aids The Elderly

A new food co-op program for the elderly called "A Helping Hand," is being brought to senior citizens in Andover by the Greater Lawrence Community Action Council, Inc. (GLCAC).

The object of the program is to provide wholesome food for the elderly at wholesale prices, and to improve the nutritional quality of their food by offering a variety of fresh and citrus fruits, fresh vegetables, dairy and cheese products.

Senior residents may order one $5 bag of groceries a week, plus a $5 bag of cleaning supplies the last week of the month.

Orders will be taken on Monday at the two elderly housing projects here, and delivered to those locations two days later by CETA workers. Details of the pick-up site are delayed because of Friday's storm, but will be completed in time for next week's orders.

Persons who cannot get to the sites to order or pick-up may call the main co-op office in Room 404 of the Bay State Building in Lawrence, or telephone 686-8669.

The program is endorsed by the Andover Housing Authority and the Andover Council on Aging.

According to GLCAC spokesmen, studies of low income elderly persons in subsidized housing indicate that 49 percent do not eat yellow or green vegetables daily, 40 percent do not consume citrus fruit or juice every day, and 43 percent do not drink the required amount of milk per day.

This results in low intake levels of vitamins A and C, Riboflavin and calcium.

While the co-op program will not satisfy the total grocery needs, it will help by providing some of the fresh foods essential to good health. It also provides an essential service to the community and will mean one less bag elderly citizens will have to carry home from the grocery store. Government surplus food will be included free when available.

Grocery bags will be paid for when ordered, and contents will be changed weekly.

For example, next week's bag will include four half-pints of whole milk, three cans of assorted juices, a quarter pound each of butter and margarine, one loaf of bread, fresh vegetables and fruit, half a dozen eggs, a can of chunky sirloin burger soup, two packages of raisens, a small box of Uneeda biscuits, a six-ounce jar of peanut butter, a 10-ounce jar of apple butter, choice of 4 ounces of frozen hamburger or five ounces of Banquet meat loaf.

The paper/cleaning products bag will include one package of facial soap, one package of Clorox 2 bleach, one package of napkins, one package of paper towels, four rolls of toilet paper, one box of facial tissues, one large box of detergent, 12 ounces of liquid detergent, a package of four handi-wipes and one box of soap pads.

Asst. Supt. Field Narrows To Two

The candidates for the job of assistant superintendent have been narrowed to two, following interviews with the six finalists last week.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert said the two will be visited in their present school systems the beginning of next week, and interviewed once again next Thursday.

A recommendation should be forthcoming at the Feb. 7 school committee meeting.

Intramural Hockey In Final Season

The school committee Tuesday night appointed David Amundsen intramural ice hockey coach at West Jr. High and Walter Marcille, at East Jr. High, for this winter season.

However, Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert reported that only 30 youths had signed up for hockey this year — compared to 170 a few years ago — and that it will be dropped as an IM sport next year.

It was originally begun, he said, for youths who were not involved in town hockey or the high school program.

In other personnel action, the committee accepted the resignation of Stephen Tisbert as cheerleading coach at West Jr. High for the winter term, on account of conflicting schedules, and appointed Barbara E. Kearn teacher aide at West Elementary.

Salary differentials of $900 were approved for reading specialists Katherine Costello, Sheila LaMontagne, Maureen Mangiaglia, Jane Markiewicz and Mary Lou Shea, while Nancy Smith received $720 for four-fifths time.

Jurors Drawn

Selectmen Monday night drew the names of 12 residents to be assigned jury duty in the Essex County Superior Court sessions.

Drawn were: Harry Lehnert, Jr., 53 Brookfield Road; Alexander P. Schutte, 12 Sherry Drive; William A. Reoch, 8 Kirkland Drive; Steven A. Ginsberg, 99 Wild Rose Drive;

Joseph F. McEnroy, 1 Hidden Way; George Milne, 51 Memorial Circle; Howard A. West, 152 Haggetts Pond Road; Vernon A. VanDewoestine, 1 Vine St.; John B. McAllister, 256 North Main St.; Marie F. Tasillo, 58 Juniper Road; Robert L. Trott, 35 Chandler Circle; Howard Brown, 24 Brown St.

Six In Running For Manager

Selectmen have narrowed the field of town manager candidates to six and are they say "on target" toward naming the new administrator by mid-February.

Chairman Susan T. Poore said Monday night that packets of information about the town have been sent to the six persons selected for final interviews. The packets contain town reports, school committee information copies of the TOWNSMAN and statistical data for their perusal. Interviews will be set up and from these talks the field will be narrowed further as the board nears its final decision.

It is believed that Acting Manager Sheldon S. Cohen is among the six finalists.

Warrant Deadline Friday

All non-financial items for inclusion in the town meeting warrant must be filed with the town clerk by Friday at 4:30 p.m. Selectmen reviewed the items to be submitted by the town at their meeting Monday night, and will begin examining the items and the budget beginning with their conference session next Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the water treatment plant.

Program On Drugs Is Monday

The local drug situation, an evaluation of programs past and present and new approaches and research in the drug field, are among the topics to be discussed by area professionals participating in a Drug Panel Monday, Jan. 30 at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium of South School.

Sponsored by South School's PTO, the meeting is open to the public and will include a question and answer period.

Panelists will be Andover High School Assistant Principal, William Hixon; Andover Police Officer, Joseph Hastings; Greater Lawrence Outreach Clinical Director, Barbara Ellman; and Lawrence area pediatrician and drug program pioneer, Dr. James O'Shea.

PTO president Allan Minkinnin will moderate.

Watershed Meeting

On Feb. 16 the public is invited to participate in an open meeting to be held at Northern Essex Community College, hosted by the Massachusetts Resources Commission and the Merrimack River Watershed Council, Inc. The meeting will start at 7:30 p.m.

DPW Wins Battle Against Storm

In the battle of Man Against the Elements last weekend, it would have to be judged that Andover won.

Andover public works department crews, joined by private contractors were on the road before dawn Friday beginning the battle against what turned out to be the heaviest snowfall in over a century. And, the plowing, sanding and salting operations continued through until sometime around 4 p.m. Saturday as the town's roads were open and cleared of the over 20-inch snowfall.

Public Works Director Robert E. McQuade said that the town's 13 snow-fighting units were joined by close to 50 private contractors during initial plowing operations.

Crews began working early Friday, stopped for about a half-hour break at noon and in the evening on Friday and continued through the night. About 7 a.m. Saturday the hired equipment was dropped and the town workmen continued through until about 4 p.m. with mopup work.

Both town and hired equipment were back at work Sunday morning at 7 a.m. beginning snow clearance operations in the central business district area and taking care of problems in various sections of town. Again on Monday the snow clearance operations were underway 5 a.m. and continued for another 12 hours.

In addition, some crews were dispatched to shovel out hydrants in sections of town, with some already having been cleared by citizens, proving a big assist to the department and a safety factor to themselves.

By the time traffic began moving en route to work or other destinations, Andover was completely open and with the aid of the sun, many streets were down to bare pavement.

Schools were in session again on Monday, only Friday classes having to be suspended due to the storm.

There were some equipment breakdowns, McQuade said, but none of such a serious nature that adjustments could not be made in order to keep ahead of the storm.

For the most part, the general public assisted by heeding advice of weather and public safety officials which was simply, "If your home stay there, if not get home." Streets free of traffic lent themselves to smoother plowing operations.

The "bottom line," on the record breaking storm — cost — is expected to be high. The DPW director conservatively estimated early this week that the cost could run as high as $64,000.

By Wednesday, with the major portion of the cleanup operations out of the way, DPW crews could not look forward to a break as forecasters were predicting another major storm, this one being heavy rains. It was anticipated that workmen would be handling flooding conditions due to catch basins not being able to handle the flow. Also there was a possible threat of freezing conditions following the rainfall.

Why people who buy fine chateau wine by the bottle are also buying fine Romanian wine by the case.

Two bottles of chateau wine worth about $24.

A 12-bottle case of Premiat worth about $24.

If you buy two bottles of fine chateau wine it could cost you as much as twenty-four dollars. Which is about the same price you'd pay for 12 bottles of fine Premiat Romanian wine.

And Premiat wines have the same delicate aroma and flavor as their famous French counterparts.

This striking similarity is no accident. The vineyards producing Premiat grow the same grapes on the same latitude as the vineyards of Bordeaux and Burgundy.

A fact that's led the leading wine critics to some very unrestrained praise and we quote:

"...Sound wines at that price will be welcomed with cries of delight."

"The most remarkable wines I've found anywhere at this low cost."

They call Premiat Cabernet

Sauvignon a "warm and full-bodied" wine with an "earthy bouquet," and the Pinot Noir a wine that's "...very easy to drink...soft and smooth with an elegant bouquet," and "...with good body and nice balance, a mature Burgundian taste..."

You can buy Premiat Pinot Noir, Cabernet Sauvignon or delicious white Tarnave Castle for about $2 a bottle. But, at such value, you'd be wise to buy a case.

The Public Forum

Disappointed

To The Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

The Andover Education Association is extremely disappointed with the School Committee's rejection of Dr. Seifert's proposal to station one security guard at the West Junior High School and the High School parking lots. Prior to its meeting, we had met with Dr. Seifert to discuss the justification for two guards, one in each lot.

Our reasons for presenting, and then reinforcing, the proposal for security guards are two-fold: vandalism and safety of students and other individuals. The list of vandalism during the last two years includes:

1. Damage to automobile wheels, hub caps, gas locks, doors, hoods, and roofs.
2. Thefts from automobiles in the lots, including clothing, tape decks, and tapes.
3. Broken automobile windows and windshields.
4. Paint smearing on one automobile.

Far more serious than vandalism is the safety of those who use these lots. Early this year, a student stole a teacher's car and crashed into two other cars in the West Junior High School parking lot. In addition to the material cost, a teacher aide was pinned between two of the cars, resulting in admittance to the hospital where it was determined she had a broken pelvis. There could have been considerably more damage if these cars had contained parents driving students to school, or a student on his way to school.

In view of these dangers to automobiles and individuals that use these lots, we feel it is imperative that the School Committee take positive action on this issue. The Andover Education Association agrees with

Dr. Seifert — security measures are needed; however, we would like to have two guards instead of one as he suggested.

Ron Tibbetts
President

'Ho Hum' Dog Law

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

"Sid" White should be pleased to read the Article by "Mike" Hanlon in the Lawrence Tribune of Jan. 18, 1978.

The animal lovers who worked so diligently to have a "Ho Hum" dog leash law passed at the October Town Meeting in Andover, can now ride on Central Street, or any other street in Andover, and see the results of the voice controlled dogs they were told about at the Town Meeting.

I wonder if the dog owners, who let their animals roam unsupervised on trash collection days, could be penalized? Would they be as sympathetic to their dogs freedom? My thought of a penalty would have these dog owners pick up the debris their animals had created at no cost to the taxpayers.

C.E.T.A. money is taxpayers money that comes from the Federal Government, which receives this money from the Tax Returns of Andover residents. The money to purchase a Van and maintain it, would be on the Property Tax Rate of Andover homeowners. Neither of these funds are gifts from Heaven.

The Town Manager and the Selectmen should find a way (A more strict dog leash law) to save the taxpayers money, instead of looking for ways to pay for an unnecessary expense.

Baroque Concert At Phillips

THE TOWNSMAN, JANUARY 26, 1978

The Music Department of Phillips Academy presents the Academy orchestra, conducted by David Irwin, in a program of Baroque music tonight and tomorrow at 7 p.m. in the Addison Gallery of American Art. Featured harpsichordists will be Carolyn and John Skelton.

Mrs. Skelton is school organist and instructor of organ and harpsichord at Phillips Academy. Mr. Skelton is on the faculties of the University of New Hampshire and the University of Lowell. He is the organist for the First Congregational Church in Winchester.

The orchestra will perform the Concerto Grosso in B flat major, Op. 6, No. 11, by Archangelo Corelli. Mr. and Mrs. Skelton will be the soloists in the Concerto for Two Harpsichords in C major, by J. S. Bach.

Admission to the one-hour program is free and the public is cordially invited to attend.

High School Choir Plans Cabaret

The Andover High School choir will sponsor a "Cabaret-Spaghetti Supper", Feb. 3 and 4, 6:30 p.m. at South Church.

This fund-raising event will help defray costs for the choir's forthcoming spring tour to Philadelphia and Washington. Dinner, which will be prepared by the high school Choral Parents Association, will feature spaghetti and meatballs, salad, bread and a choice of homemade desserts and beverage. During dinner, singing waiters and waitresses will entertain and immediately following dinner, individuals will perform along with the choir, chorale, madrigal singers and barbershop quartet.

Tickets for dinner and the show may be purchased from any choir member or by calling the high school music office. Senior citizens may purchase their tickets at "The Haven." Since reservations are limited, choir members suggest early purchase.

Recycling Process Depends On Separation Of Items

Andover Recycles

Andover recycles approximately five tons of cans and 25 tons of glass each month. The small amount of time and energy spent to separate these items from trash is just the beginning of the process that puts more glass and cans back into our homes.

Bill's Trucking, the recycling pick-up contractor, delivers the glass and cans to MATCON in Salem. This plant processes 600-800 tons of glass and cans per month. They buy these items from 12 towns in the Greater Boston area. These municipal accounts supply about 60 percent of the materials used by MATCON; 40 percent being industrial accounts such as Budweiser in New Hampshire.

At the plant, the glass and cans move along a conveyor belt where a revolving magnet picks out the steel cans, tops, and bottle rings while aluminum cans are removed manually. The glass is crushed, then placed in 30 ton containers ready for trucking. At this point, the separated glass and cans leave MATCON.

The aluminum cans (1 percent of the volume handled by MATCON) are sold to aluminum recyclers such as Reynold's Aluminum where the cans are melted and made into new cans.

The steel cans (18 percent of MATCON's volume) are currently being trucked to a company, MRI, in New Jersey where they are detinned by an expensive, chemical process. The tin, a small fraction of the total metal in a can, and the steel are then sold separately for the production of any number of commercial products, including more cans. The volatile price of scrap metal determines the incentive of industrial operations to recycle cans. The price is low currently, therefore, MATCON now makes no profit on this aspect of its operation.

There are significant incentives to recycle glass, however. Glass, 81 percent of MATCON's volume, is trucked to a glass factory in Dayville, Conn., 50 miles away. The old clear glass is melted and mixed with raw glass to make new beverage bottles and food containers. Old brown and green glass is mixed likewise to make more brown glass. Because a lower temperature is required to melt old glass than to make raw glass, the factory uses less fuel. Also, a regulation by the Environmental Protection Agency has required expensive air pollution control equipment on glass factories if they do not use a certain percentage of recycled glass in their process.

The demand for recycled glass is great, but the glass must be separated by color because it must be sold to the glass factory that way.

The glass also must not be "contaminated." This is a major problem for MATCON where 60 percent of their budget is spent on the manpower and the expense of slowing down their machinery so that the fine pieces of ceramic from a broken cup or plate can be picked out of the glass. It takes one hour to process one ton of contaminated glass, whereas a clean load of glass can be processed at 20 tons per hour. MATCON also runs the risk of making no profit if its 30 ton truck load of glass should be rejected by the glass factory in Conn. due to a few small pieces of undetected ceramic.

By understanding the recycling process better, it becomes possible to be more responsible in source separation at home. Industrial operations can work more efficiently, which in the long run means a savings for the town.

many of the scheduled speakers and panelists. But the panels were held with other newsmen filling in. Townsman Editor Finneran substituted on a panel on "What Is Good News Writing All About?" with Tom Baldwin, head of the Associated Press bureau in Boston, Bob Moore, editor, South Middlesex News and James Thompson, publisher from Dover-Foxcroft, Maine.

On Thursday, opening day of the convention, retired Townsman Advertising-Business Manager Raymond B. DeRuisseau was the moderator for a roundtable discussion on problems facing newspapers.

James D. Haggety, III, managing editor of the Woburn Daily Times was elected president of NEPA at the annual meeting on Friday.

some sensible solutions through continued study and advised the school committee Tuesday night that he would come back to the board next week with some specific proposals on how to handle the situation.

Seifert reiterated Coyle's comments on the decision not to have the youngsters in school Tuesday.

"There was a lot of snow on the roof which had to be removed. Another storm was predicted for Wednesday, so it was a matter of getting the snow off and there is no sense in having the kids there with that going on," Seifert said.

Al Hart, plant engineer for the school department, told the school board Tuesday night that the town has been constantly patching the roof at Bancroft. But, he added, the more he sees of the problem, the more he is convinced it is not a roofing problem, but a structural difficulty. A certain amount of deflection is always going to go into the low areas from the high pitched roof. The tongue and groove boards expand and the town can keep repairing them forever and not keep up, he said.

Committee member Elaine Viehmann asked if the architect was responsible for correction of the condition, and was told that responsibility ended a couple of years after completion and acceptance by the town. Mrs. Viehmann noted the irony of having "a building the whole world comes to see," yet one that has problems for the town.

Hart commented that the building has real aesthetic value and appeal to the kids, but it is not easy or cheap to maintain. "Bancroft will be a big expense to the town as long as it is in existence," Hart said.

In response to a question from Committeeman Casimir Kolaski, as to whether the board should budget for a new roof, Seifert replied the administration would be coming back with a specific proposal next week.

At the moment there is nothing budgeted for major repairs to Bancroft, other than reshingling of some of the low areas, no special articles in the warrant directed toward repairs.

This does not, however, preclude action at this year's town meeting, should the work be deemed advisable. The selectmen are already contemplating a special town meeting within the annual session to accommodate late items.

Dripping ceilings, a direct result of roofing or structural problems have been common at Bancroft for the past several years. Provisions are made to replace rugs at the schools almost annually, due to the condition.

Albers' Works Featured At Addison Gallery

"Formulation: Articulation," a portfolio of 127 silkscreen prints reviewing 40 years of the ideas of Josef Albers, is at the Addison Gallery of American Art, Phillips Academy, through Feb. 26. A collaborative work under the design of Norman Ives and Sewell Sillman, the double portfolio explores the artist's method of developing his ideas and demonstrations the variety of ways in which they could be executed. The exhibition is installed sequentially in the same order as the portfolios so that the visual interactions planned by the artist are retained. Recognizing the problems of transposing original image into serigraphs for the portfolios, the relationships between color and form in each work were redeveloped for the medium of screen printing.

Although the portfolio is a definitive exposition of his continuing concern for the infinite possibilities of color, it is even more importantly a work of art in its own right. "The book aims at art itself . . . these are visual realizations here presented outspoken in silkscreen" (Josef Albers' preface to the portfolio).

Born in 1888, Albers taught at the Bauhaus in Germany before coming to the United States to head the Art Department at Black Mountain College in North Carolina in 1933. His impact on the development of contemporary American art initiated at Black Mountain became even greater after he moved to Yale University in the 1950's. Internationally acclaimed and exhibited, Josef Albers was one of the few living American artists to be honored by the Metropolitan Museum of Art with a retrospective exhibition in 1971.

Bound For New Zealand

Liz McGoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McGoff of Appletree Lane, packed a little bit of everything this week, including an American flag, for her year in New Zealand. She leaves tomorrow for the East Coast city of Gisborne, sponsored by the Andover Chapter of American Field Service. A junior, she'll attend school in New Zealand, then return here next year to graduate with her Andover High class.

Simple living may become a powerful economic, social and political force during the next decade as result of a sense of urgency and social responsibility.

Mirisola To Head Militia

Robert Mirisola has been elected captain of the Andover Company of Militia, succeeding Eric Heartquist.

Other officers for the coming year include Donald Ward, lieutenant; Frank Gallant, sergeant major; Richard Lundgren, ensign; Richard Conron, sergeant paymaster; George Thomson, sergeant; Eric Heartquist, corporal and Edward Parker, historian.

The company members thanked former Captain Eric Heartquist and his staff for a job well done in 1977. The Andover company will continue its authentic role and continue to represent the town in various colonial activities and parades this year as well as some colonial craft projects.

The Militia is presently holding meetings on the second and fourth Tuesday nights of the month at 7:30 in the Ballardvale Community Center on Center Street, Ballardvale. Persons wishing to join the company may attend any of these meetings for more information.

The Andover Co. of Militia has donated the book "The Minutemen 1775-1975" to Memorial Hall Library and the Andover Historical Society. A brief history of the Andover Co., and its 1975 roster are documented in this book written by the Council of Minutemen, Inc. The Andover Co. will hold its Annual Founder's Day Ball April 22, at the Andover Country Club.

M.A.S.H. At West Junior High

The annual play production at West Junior High School, M.A.S.H. has been rescheduled to Feb. 10 and 11 because of rehearsal cancellations due to snowstorms and cast illnesses such as one case of appendix, one pneumonia, two chicken pox and several cases of the flu. Rehearsals are in full swing with the antics of Hawkeye Pierce, played by Michael Chiklis, his buddies Duke (Bob Emberley) and Trapper (Tripp LeGendre). This full length comedy, written by Tim Kelley, is a dramatization from the book by Richard Hooker. It portrays Radar (David Demerjian), Father Mulcahy (Andrew Parthum) and gool ole Hotlips Houlihan (Mary Beth Boland). Her crew of nurses include: Bridget (Jane Dietzel) Louise (Lauren Whitley), Nancy (Melissa Craig) and Janice (Cheryl Brandt).

Captain Frank Burns is also his pompous self (Jeff Deveau and John Holmy); along with new members of the medical staff: Dr. Black (David Matthews), who is called Ugly because he is so handsome, and Dentist Walt Waldowski (Eric Bernardin) who runs a poker parlor. The camp cook, Sgt. Devine (Harris Levinson) is a con man. The whole mad, M.A.S.H. unit is commanded by easy going, frustrated Colonel Blake (Chris Peters).

Andover High Notebook

By Renee Pruneau

Saturday night's Golden Warrior Minstrel Show was a huge success. As well as being highly entertaining it showed the great talent that is encompassed in the walls of Andover High in the fields of music and comedy. The show consisted of many singers and pianists. Some of the songs heard were "Send in the Clowns" sung by Barbara L'Italien with Jenny Casanave as accompanist, "Second Hand Rose" sung by Jane Cormier with Susan Casanave, accompanying on piano, "Luck be a Lady" by Ross Winnick accompanied by Mrs. King and "Can't Help Falling in Love" by Rich O'Hara with Paul Fitzgerald at the piano.

The comedy aspects of the evening included short skits such as "The Chumpion" a skit about a boxer and sports reporter, which even included eating a raw egg. The egg eater was Paul Marasco and the reporter was played by Chuck Souter. "The Air Head" was another original skit about a singles bar. The players were Rhonda Altice, Dennis O'Meara and Dana Rosengard. There were many knee-slapping one liners by the endmen, Paul Marasco, Paul Fitzpatrick, Rich O'Hara, Dennis O'Meara, Dana Rosengard, Chuck Souter, and Ross Winnick, with Mr. King, the director of the program often the butt of the joke.

The Golden Warrior Minstrel Band, dressed in dungarees and flannel skirts as well as odd-looking hats, played "Saints Come Marching In" and "Sweet Georgia Brown". The Golden Warrior Glee Club sang "The Wiz." There were dancers, tambourine men, a Barber Shop Quartet, a magician, whip cream pies, Dischordettes, and impressionists. It was a lively evening with something for everyone's taste. A hearty congratulations should go to all who helped with this performance.

On Wednesday Jan. 11, the Student Advisory Council again sponsored the High School Bloodmobile drive. Student government officials helped the school nurse by filling out forms and taking blood pressures of their fellow students who bravely gave to this worthy cause. Some one hundred students and teachers gave blood.

Permanent exhibits at the Peabody Museum of Salem, 161 Essex St., include maritime history of New England, life at sea, China Trade, art and technology of the Far East and South Pacific, and animals.

Warriors Back On 'Track'

By Jess Parks

It did not take long for the Andover high indoor track team to retain its poise. The Warriors bounced back from their loss to Methuen with two lopsided victories over Billerica, 65-21 and Lawrence, 70-16.

In the Billerica meet, Jan. 16th, things got off to a very fast start when Mark Hopkins recorded his best time of the year, 6.0 seconds, in the 45 yard high hurdles to take first. Two events later, in the 300 yard run, the Warriors laid the foundations for the coming rout as they swept all three spots and increased their lead to 21-6.

In the remaining seven events, the Warriors took first six times including a sweep in the shot put. Billerica was mathematically eliminated after the two-mile run — Kevin Worthley sealed the Indians fate with his first place time of 10:32.0.

Results of the meet are as follows:

45 yd. Hurdles — Hopkins (A); Dorsey (A); Jones (B), 16.0.
50 yd. Dash — Gambale (B); Kramer (A); Lynch (A), 15.9.
300 yd. Run — Collins (A); Flaherty (A); LaCourse (A), 1:35.5.
600 yd. Run — Hamilton (A); Silvera, Gutterman (A), 1:23.4.
1000 yd. Run — Cullinane (B); Callahan (A); Trainor, 2:30.4.
1 Mile — Innes (A); Griggs (A); Morgan, 4:46.9.
Two Mile — Worthley (A); Sullivan,

Bickerton (A), 10:32.0.
High Jump — Hopkins (A); Dorsey (A); Salemmi, 5' 6".
Shot Put — Skinner (A); McIntyre (A); Anderson (A), 47' 6 1/4".

Against Lawrence, the Warriors were devastating, taking first in every event while crushing the Lancers 70-16.

Andover's domination was convincingly displayed in the three distance events; they outscored the Lancers 26-1 in the three runs. Dave Callaghan, Jim Hamilton, and Kevin Worthley each took first in their respective events — the 1000 yard run, the mile, and the two-mile. In two of the three, the Warriors swept all three spots. The meet was clinched during the mile run, when Mike Terrion's second place time of 5:06.0 gave the Warriors enough points to eliminate any possibility of a Lawrence win.

This win combined with the victory over Billerica, makes Andover's record 5-1, which puts the Warriors in Second place in the Merrimack Valley Track League. Chelmsford and Methuen are tied for first with 6-0 records.

Total results of the meet with Lawrence are as follows:

50 yd. Dash — Collins (A); Lynch (A); Santiago, 15.7.
300 yd. Run — Flaherty (A); Darby (A); Humbleton, 1:36.4.
600 yd. Run — Gutterman (A); Lucy (A); Nutter, 1:22.7.
1000 yd. Run — Callaghan (A); Maloof (A); Hothan (A), 2:26.7.
1 Mile — Hamilton (A); Terrion (A); Pacheco, 4:36.9.
Two Mile — Worthley (A); Innes (A); Hoyle (A), 10:31.7.
Shot Put — Skinner (A); LaRosa, Soule, 48' 1 1/4".
High Jump — Hopkins (A); Ward, Nutter, 5' 10".

P.M. Cleaning Leads League

With one half of the season left to play, the team representing P.M. Floor and Cleaning Service leads the 19-32 years division of the Recreation Community Schools Men's Basketball league, with a perfect 6-0 record.

Led by the high scoring of Scott White and Dick Muller, P.M. Cleaning has dominated the division with a potent offense and a tight defense that has given up more than forty points only twice (in both cases the opponents scored 41 points) during the season.

Second spot in the division standings is claimed by The Sport Shop which has a record of 4-1, with the lone defeat coming at the hands of the division leaders. The Sport Shop has a well balanced offensive that distributes its scoring among several of its players. Top shooters for the runners-up to date have been Al Eggert and Alex Palmer.

Right behind The Sport Shop are The Shags with a 4-2 mid-season performance. Team captain Frank Morris is one of the team's top all-round players and is an integral part of the squad's success. The Shags are a very consistent team and will be a tough team to beat in the playoffs.

College Ice, looking like a contender for the top spot early in the season, has played to a 3-3 record at the half-way mark. Lack of bench strength and a much needed big man under the basket have dealt College Ice one or two losses that could easily have been victories. Team captain Don Strong, Alan Kenny played to a 3-3 record at the half-way mark. Lack of bench strength and a much needed big man under the basket have dealt College Ice one or two losses that could easily have been victories. Team captain Don Strong, Alan

On Dean's List At Regis

Barbara A. Kelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Kelley, 5 Kenilworth St., Andover, was named to the Dean's List at Regis College, Weston, for the first semester of the current academic year.

A freshman, Barbara achieved the academic honors by maintaining at least a 3.25 average on a 4. scale.

Regis College is a Catholic, four-year liberal arts school for women founded in 1927 with an undergraduate student body today of 700.

Kenny and Jack Swift have been the team's top performers during the past several weeks.

The Doherty team has a record of 2-4 and has to be considered as the division's "dark horse" candidate. Although sporting a losing record. The fifth place club has several outstanding players and undoubtedly will improve its record during the second half of the season. Dave Bradner is Doherty's top scorer and playmaker. The team's offense heavily depends on big games from Dave as well as Kevin Sheehan.

The Suns have a deceiving record of 1-4. Russ Howard, Steve Beaudoin and Pete Lafond lead a strong offense, but at times weak defense and foul trouble have often caused the Suns to drop behind in games that they could be battling out to the very end.

Occupying the bottom spot in the division is the new Nads team that is playing together for the first time. Although winless to date, the Nads have shown steady improvement, particularly defensively. Team captain Joe Conlon has done a fine job in putting together a team that is playing better each week. Conlon and Mike Withington have been two of the Nads top players over the past couple of months. Division playoffs will begin in early March with the four top teams qualifying for the playoff spots.

Standings for 19-32 Div.

Floral Designs

Mary Cox demonstrates different ways of arranging flowers at meeting of the Village Garden Club held at McLay's Garden Center, North Andover.

Flower Arranging Agenda

The regular monthly meeting of the Spade and Trowel Garden Club will be held on Tuesday, Feb. 14 at the residence of Mrs. Dot Moulton, 9 Dean Circle, Andover. Following the business meeting there will be a flower arranging workshop.

Co-hostesses assisting at this meeting are: Mrs. Neila Merrill and Mrs. Gina Mynttinen. This meeting is for members only.

New England's need to develop alternate sources of energy is the most critical in the nation, according to Massachusetts Audubon. New England is now dependent on oil for 65 percent of its energy.

Workshop For Parents Of Teens

Greater Lawrence Outreach is conducting an eight-week workshop for parents of youth aged 12 to 16, beginning Jan. 31 from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

Outreach provides Greater Lawrence youth with activities and counseling. Its emphasis is on prevention and education in the area of drugs and alcohol.

Hazel Fleming, an expressive therapist intern, will conduct the workshop. Mrs. Fleming, who is completing her masters degree at Lesley College, has worked with adolescents and families in addition to her role as parent and step-parent of three adolescents and one toddler.

Stage Hopefuls Sought

The invitation is out again to all the polished and not-so-polished show enthusiasts in the Merrimack Valley to come to Kick-Off night for the fourth biannual Follies Show sponsored by the Lawrence General Hospital Aid Association.

On Wednesday evening, Feb. 1 at 7 p.m. at the North Andover Country Club, front and back stage hopefuls will have the chance to meet the directing team of Robert and Dorothy Canessa to hear about opportunities in this year's musical production.

As in the past, close to 100 performers and stage hands will volunteer their time and talent to benefit the Lawrence General Hospital and to insure the success of an original review entitled "Viva Vegas". On next Wednesday night directors will be searching for dancers, singers, actors (solo or chorus variety) as well as support crews for scenery, props, costuming and makeup.

Anyone interested in becoming part of this fun-filled production is invited to join the directors on Feb. 1. The show will rehearse during February in preparation for final performances on Thursday, March 2 and Friday, March 3.

The Canessas, husband and wife directing team from the North Shore, stress that they are looking for participants of all ages and all types and levels of talent: "There is a place for everyone in this kind of show — all we need is your interest and enthusiasm."

The Canessas will be remembered in the area for the Lawrence General Show four years ago, when they transformed talent night hopefuls into starring performers in just one month. The Canessas are known for bringing out the best in amateurs and have done just that in many large charity productions throughout New England including an original review for the Winton Club in Winchester, a Cole Porter show for the Paint and Powder Club of Lowell, a comedy for Salem Hospital, and numerous musical comedies for area colleges and high schools.

Both directors have spent most of their lives dancing, teaching, performing and choreographing shows. Mr. Canessa performed in the National Company of "Oklahoma" before returning to New England where the couple established their school of dance in Lynn. The Canessas now keep a busy teaching schedule at their own studio as well as the Faculty Club at MIT and the Boston Women's City Club on Beacon Hill.

Mrs. Vincent P. Morton Jr., show chairman, and Mrs. George Redman, talent chairman, both of the Hospital Aid

Association, encourage all prospective theatre buffs to join the spirit of the Follies and to come to Kick-Off night to see and hear a lively preview of Greater Lawrence's own early spring musical show.

Kindergarten Registration Open House

Saint Augustine School will have Kindergarten registration for the school year 1978-79 and Open House on Wednesday, Feb. 1 and Thursday, Feb. 2 from 9 a.m. to 12. Parents wishing to register their children should bring the registration fee, baptismal and birth certificates to the school office. Children must be 5 years of age as of Sept. 1, in order to register for Kindergarten classes. For further information call the school office.

Needlework Program

Mrs. Dwain B. Smith of Andover, co-chairman of the gift shop, is among members of the Ladies Committee of the Essex Institute who will present a morning workshop of miniature needlework conducted by Judy and Rene Gaillardetz on Tuesday, Jan. 31 at 10:30. The event is open to the public and coffee will be served at 10.

Mrs. Gaillardetz is a designer, teacher and student of old needlework techniques and their adaptation to modern projects. She will exhibit several of her award-winning replicas of museum pieces.

Her husband will show aminiature room and demonstrate the easiest and best manner in which to mount finished needlework. Both will be delighted to answer questions.

For further information contact the institute.

THE TOWNSMAN, JANUARY 26, 1978

Anne M. Harnedy, Was Shawsheen Principal

Miss Anne M. Harnedy, 24 Summer St., retired principal of Shawsheen Elementary School, died Tuesday at Town Manor Nursing Home, Lawrence after a long illness.

Born in Andover, she was a graduate of the Andover public schools and Lowell Teachers College, class of 1920; received her Bachelor's degree from Lowell and her Master's degree from Suffolk University.

Miss Harnedy taught in Cohasset and came to Andover in 1922 to the then new Shawsheen School and was appointed the Principal of that school in 1927 and remained in that capacity until retiring in 1967. She was a member of the Shawsheen Village Women's Club, Andover Teachers' Association, representative of Essex County Teachers Association, secretary of the Andover Guild for many years, and past president of the Junior Red Cross of Andover.

Miss Harnedy attended St. Augustine's church, Andover, and was a member of the Sacred Heart Sodality of that parish.

Survivors include a sister, Miss Mary E. Harnedy of Andover; a niece, Miss Kathleen A. Harnedy of Lawrence; a nephew, William J. Harnedy Jr. of Lawrence, one grand-niece and one grand-nephew.

A funeral mass will be offered Friday at 10 a.m. in St. Augustine's Church. Burial will be in St. Augustine's Cemetery.

Friends may call Thursday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. at the Lundgren Funeral Home, 18 Elm St.

Ministerial Associate Appointed

The Unitarian Universalist Church of Andover has appointed Christine Robinson as Ministerial Associate, to be part of their ministerial staff between January and June, 1978. The position is part of a field internship program sponsored by the Unitarian Universalist Association.

Ms. Robinson, a first year student at Boston University School of Theology, is a professional musician, and received her undergraduate education at Baldwin-Wallace College in Ohio. She has had experience managing a music store.

She is a member of the Arlington Street Unitarian Universalist Church in Boston, a native of Washington, District of Columbia, and a life-long Unitarian Universalist.

In joining the ministerial staff of the Andover church, Ms. Robinson will be active in all phases of parish ministerial activities, working with the present staff of the minister, Dr. Randolph Lehman-Becker, and director of religious education/student minister, Jean Rickard.

The internship program which brings Ms. Robinson to Andover is an attempt by the denomination to provide valid, on-the-job experience to complement the theoretical learning of the theological school, and help the student assess areas of competence and interest in the "real" ministry.

Tax Increase Of $5-$7 In Budget Document

By Robert E. Finneran
Editor

A total town budget of $23,102,200, of which town expenses are listed at $9,642,311, was presented to the selectmen and finance committee by Acting Town Manager Sheldon S. Cohen this week.

The estimated budget at this point, which includes school costs totaling $13,459,890, would produce an estimated tax rate of $65.95 for next year, but Acting Manager Cohen feels that figures will be adjusted downward before town meeting convenes in April.

Cohen points out that state receipts at this point are only estimates and that both the selectmen, finance committee and school committee will be reviewing the budgets with an eye toward cutting long before the matter gets to the town meeting floor.

The acting manager estimates that the actual tax rate increase could be closer to $5 making the new levy $63 for the coming fiscal year by the time all the review work is completed.

The school department's actual budget has been inserted at this time at $12.1 million. But in the overall budget presentation prepared by the manager, all school costs, such as school construction, vocational education, school lunch program, pensions, etc.

Estimated receipts for the school department from all sources has been set at $2,511,092.

In the budget planning process begun two years ago, in which selectmen asked the town manager to project estimated tax rates for subsequent years, the 1979 rate was built in at $64, thus the estimates appear valid.

In his budget message, Acting Manager Cohen notes that proposals are made to obtain two objectives: "Establishing the capacity of the town to act on the demands

Sheldon S. Cohen

it faces as a physically large municipality in a critical location in one of our nation's most dynamic regions and strengthening the town's support of the professional development of well-being of its personnel.

In the area of establishing the capacity of the town to act on growth, Cohen is proposing a full audit of the town accounts every two years by a firm of independent auditors and also the appointment of an assistant assessor to "establish the town's complete ability to manage its main revenue-producing function."

Data processing is another area which will be addressed in the coming fiscal year, the financing for such equipment due to be asked for at the April town meeting.

The five year capital budget program, has afforded the town with "major choices," and will prove a useful tool, Cohen notes.

The central purchasing department will need the services of a full time account-clerk to carry out effective functioning of this office, the acting manager feels.

Of major importance as the town faces its growth problems will be the addition of a full time planner to the town's staff. "There is no substitute for the town's having this expertise on a full time basis. Growing expenditures for consultants provide only a fraction of the service available from a full-time professional on the town's own staff," Cohen said.

The acting manager points out in his message that the increase in water rates this past year has already reflected what was intended to be accomplished — underwriting the department 70 per cent by users, and the remaining 30 per cent by general taxation.

But, the manager notes, actions necessary to correct water quality conditions, particularly in the Shawsheen area, will threaten that balance in the next two years. A major expenditure is contemplated to replace mains in the Shawsheen area.

In the area of employee benefits, Cohen points out that the town maintains a $4.2 million payroll exclusive of school personnel, and that some consideration should be given to its employees.

In the area of medical insurance, the town has lagged behind all comparable communities in master medical coverage and a commitment has been made to correct this in the coming year.

Pre-placement physical examinations should be instituted as a benefit to both the town as employee and to the prospective employee.

Professional training and development is also proposed by Cohen. The acting manager feels that tuition-reimbursement programs for employees satisfactorily completing college level courses should be recognized more than it has in the past and that in-service individual and group training activities for all classifications of employees should be instituted.

Included in the budget presentation are provisions for implementation of the recommendations of the special police report done last year.

The acting manager has provided for appointment of a captain, as recommended and phasing in of one-man cruisers, among other suggestions of the consultants.

Variance Needs Change For Project

Conversion of the Sacred Heart building in Shawsheen to apartment use appears to be on track, but behind schedule due to some legal problems in the variance granted by the zoning board of appeals.

Selectmen and Industrial Development Commission members have endorsed a request by Crowninshield Corp. of Peabody, developers of the apartment complex, to alter the variance to allow inclusion of the lending institution as a part of the petitioners.

IDC Chairman Lawrence Spiegel explained to selectmen Monday night that his group had conferred with Crowninshield officials and "nothing has really changed."

Crowninshield was granted a variance by the board of appeals to convert the school building to apartment use. As a part of the total package, the real estate development firm would obtain the building and the town the accompanying land and Cardinal Cushing gymnasium from the Brothers of the Sacred Heart.

In granting the variance the zoning board, included a condition that the work must be done by Crowninshield or an entity composed of Crowninshield officers.

The Springfield Institution for Savings, which has agreed to provide the funding for the project, was advised by their counsel, Hale and Dorr, that the condition does not provide a safe title.

What it does, Atty. Lawrence J. Sullivan of the IDC explained to selectmen, is protect the investor (the bank). Should something happen during the construction process and Crowninshield becomes unable to complete the renovation, the bank can protect its investment by having another contractor to the work.

The town continues to be protected, both Sullivan and Spiegel said, through the other conditions of the variance.

If the town is unwilling to alter this one condition of the variance, the bank would be unwilling to lend the money. Options on the granting of the mortgage have been extended to March 1, in order to facilitate the alteration.

A hearing is scheduled before the board of appeals tonight at 7:30 in Memorial Hall library.

Selectman Philip Salamone, a Shawsheen resident, noted that a great deal hinges on the historic designation, since the exterior of the building cannot be altered in order to conform to requirements of the designation.

Salamone said he felt assured with the restrictions imposed by the historic district designation, which provides tax savings to the developers, and the conditions stipulated in the variance, the town had sufficient protection.

Postal Workers Move Delayed

The transfer of mail processing to the Lawrence Post Office from the Andover office, has been further delayed, according to George Walker, regional director of the U. S. Postal Service.

The move of clerks and carriers to the Lawrence office was scheduled for this week, but has been further delayed as the postal service gives some additional review to the plan, according to postal officials.

The delay is the third in the proposed move, which has been protested by the postal workers, and through petitions signed by 10,000 Andover residents.

Transferring of the processing and delivery operations of the Andover post office was announced last fall by Walker, following an attempt by the post office department to build a new facility in Andover.

Construction of a new facility has a two year history, starting with announcement of plans for a new building for processing services on Andover street on land owned by Sidney P. White. Following a petition drive to block placing the facility there, town officials worked with the post office department in an effort to find an alternate location.

Several were suggested, but none, except a Dale street location was acceptable to the postal service. The Ballardvale site did not get an enthusiastic reception from town officials, although not rejected as strongly as others.

The plan to move clerks and carriers to Lawrence, also contained provisions for closing the Ballardvale and Shawsheen substations.

Negotiations with postal officials resulted in provisions to maintain the two substations, "indefinitely."

The plan for the transfer to Lawrence, included renovation of the Andover post office interior to provide more boxes and maintain customer services. There was to be no alteration of service to the town, Walker said last fall.

Operating out of the Lawrence facility was to begin this week by Andover clerks and carriers. Last Wednesday the local postal employees were informed the move had been postponed indefinitely.

Friday . . . Attacking the Storm

Commending The Gallant Crews

This page is generally set aside for commentary on issues facing the town, which at this particular time of year become plentiful, what with town meeting approaching.

But, this week, we'll put all that aside to echo a general feeling among Andover townspeople that the department of public works crews and the hired assistance, is worthy of commendation for their handling of the historic snow storm last weekend.

Pictures on this page give a somewhat graphic view of the activity which took place beginning early Friday morning and continuing through until all roads were open and clear, then the task of cleaning up.

What the pictures don't show is the efforts of the manpower behind the machinery. DPW crews began plowing before daybreak Friday and with the exception of a couple of half hour breaks went through until late Saturday afternoon. Hired equipment was allowed to halt operations about 8 a.m. Saturday, but town crews stuck with it until the entire town was safe and passable.

Sunday morning at 7 the crews, town and private equipment, were back at it again, doing cleanup operations in the downtown area and being attentive to problem areas throughout the town. They finished up about 7 p.m.

Again on Monday at 5 a.m., the battle resumed for another 12 hours.

And cleanup operations continue even today in view of forecasts of additional stormy weather.

Friday's storm was the heaviest snowfall since the weather bureau began keeping records over a century ago.

Machinery to battle the effects of such a storm can be kept going, but men tend to tire under the continued, relentless strain.

In Andover, however, men battled fatigue along with the record-breaking storm earning commendation of a grateful community.

Sunday . . . The cleanup begins

Monday . . . The roads are clear

Down The Years With The Townsman

75 Years Ago — January, 1903

At a meeting of the North Andover selectmen his week, town counsel was instructed to pick up the bond posted by the Haverhill and Andover electric railway which makes it virtually assured the road will not be running very soon.

One of B.B. Tuttle's wagons was damaged at the depot when it was over turned. The horses became frightened and ran down the Smith and Dove Company yard.

"Mike" Murphy, athletic trainer at Yale stopped by to visit with his friend Sidney Peet, trainer at Phillips Academy. The Yale trainer had been at Exeter attempting to induce some fine prospects to go to the New Haven school.

The slippery conditions following last Wednesday's storm caused a run on McLalwin's store to purchase creepers which came in very handy throughout the remainder of the week.

A very interesting letter has been received by Rev. F.R. Shipman from Edward Carter who is in India working for the Y.M.C.A.

50 Years Ago — January, 1928

Scott T. Shattuck, the well-known expressman has announced he will be a candidate for the three year term as selectman. Thaxter Eaton has said he will be a candidate for the two year term.

E. Burke Thornton states that he will be a candidate for re-election as tree warden and Thomas E. Rhodes of Central street reports he will seek re-election to the board of public works.

A competitive examination for appointment of a postmaster for Ballardvale has been scheduled by the post office department. Deadline for applicants is Feb. 21.

Andover Boy Scouts have been assigned a fire alarm box, when Box 3 is sounded, all Andover scouts are to report to the fire station to assist in such things as conducting a search for lost persons, or assisting in emergencies. A test alarm will be sounded soon.

Henry L. Simson, recently appointed Governor General of the Philippines, is serving as a trustee of Phillips Academy. He is a graduate of the class of 1883.

25 Years Ago — February, 1953

Voters at the town meeting in March will be called upon to decide whether the selectmen will continue to have their meetings in closed session or open to the public, under terms of a warrant article.

Residents of Shawsheen Village are the prime movers behind an article calling for an increase in the membership of the school committee from five to nine members.

A general wage increase not to exceed $5 weekly will be proposed for consideration at town meeting by full time municipal employees.

Arthur W. Bassett was re-elected clerk

B.C. Wins A YBL Intermediate Title

The Andover Youth Basketball League last week completed the second of its double-game weeks, with both regular week and weekend games.

Boston College made the big news. B. C. went undefeated in the tough Intermediate Division to capture the first-half crown. Dartmouth and Villanova tied as runner-up.

Junior Division

The Juniors opened the second of their three-round schedule last Tuesday with a bang. The Cougars and Panthers, who played an overtime game in their first meeting, opened the second round by playing a double overtime game.

Panthers 16, Cougars 15

The Panthers again nipped the Cougars in their second overtime game of the season. Trailing 9-6 at the half, the Cougars rallied to tie the regulation game at 15. The first overtime featured outstanding defense by both teams, ending in a scoreless period. Defense again dominated in the second overtime period. Mike Melia hit the game-winner from the charity line, hitting on the second of his two foul shots.

Panthers: Glenn Livermore 10, Tom Lutz 5 and Melia 1. 9-6-0-1-16.

Cougars: Paul Oshan 8 and John Terrion 7. 6-9-0-0-15.

Jaguars 26, Leopards 18

The Jaguars, winners of the division's first-round title, continued their winning ways in stopping the Leopards. The game was actually decided in the first half as the Jaguars opened a 6 point lead at half-time. The teams played the third period even and the Jaguars had a one hoop advantage in the final period. Matt Ostrowski and Jerry Buss had fine defensive games for the Leopards.

Jaguars: Brian Mackey 10, Dan Sheehan 8, Chris Comparato 6 and Jim Lombardo 2. 12-14-26.

Leopards: Mark Doherty 12 and Ostrowski 6. 6-12-18.

Tigers 20, Lions 10

The Tigers broke open a very close game in the third period to pick up their fifth win overall. The Tigers hit for 8 unanswered points in the third quarter to ice the game. Both teams then again played the final quarter even. Team defense and rebounding spelled the difference in the contest.

Tigers: Tim Perry 12, Joe Hart 4, Larry Aiello 2 and Steve Blair 2. 4-16-20.

Lions: Mark Patti 6 and Greg Hopwood 4. 4-6-10.

The division's weekend action again featured the Cougars. The hardluck Cougars dropped their second straight one-point game and their third out of seven decisions.

Tigers 19, Cougars 18

The Cougars appeared enroute to their first elusive victory, but the Tigers rallied to pull it out of the fire. Leading by four at the half, the Cougars saw their lead shrink to two entering the final period. Then, with time running out, Kevin Bardsley hit the game-winning hoop. Peter MacDonald, Jane McLarney and Rob Padva led the comeback with outstanding defensive efforts for the Tigers. Joey Flossman and Mike Powers played fine floor games for the Cougars.

Tigers: Tim Perry 8, Joe Hart 6,

Bardsley 2, Steve Glair 2 and Larry Aiello 1. 10-9-19.

Cougars: John Terrion 10 and Fran Sullivan 8. 14-4-18.

Leopards 33, Panthers 26

The Leopards pulled perhaps the division's finest comeback of the season to top the Panthers. Trailing 20-9 at the half, the Leopards combined excellent defense and hot shooting hands to lead 27-24 after three periods and then hung on for the final margin. Dave Jedrezek, Jerry Buss and Jon Ruben keyed the Leopards rally

Brett Larrabee 6, Eric Swift 4 and Allison Hill 2. 10-20-30.

B.C. 19, Harvard 15

Harvard, having dropped prior two and three-point decisions, lost by its biggest margin to the undefeated Eagles. B. C. appeared enroute to a breather, leading by 9 at the half. The Crimson cut the margin to 6 entering the final period and to two in the final minute before B.C.'s hoop by Jon Baer and rebounding by Todd Lockwood shut the door.

B.C.: Baer 7, Lockwood 6, Dick Kelley 4

Villanova in racking up their seventh consecutive victory. Dartmouth and Villanova finished the half in second place, two games off the pace.

B.C. 34, Villanova 21

Boston College wrapped up the division's first-half title by knocking off the Wildcats. The Eagles took a 11-6 lead at the half and watched the margin shrink to three at the end of three periods. B.C. then broke open the game in the final period, outscoring Villanova 16-6. Jim Lowe had an outstanding defensive game and was well-supported by Jon Baer and John Nardoza.

B.C.: Todd Lockwood 13, Dick Kelley 12, Baer 7 and Dean Lockwood 2. 11-23-34.

Villanova: Chuck Frazzette 12, Phil Puccia 5, Rob Harrison 2 and Orlando 2. 6-15-21.

Dartmouth 33, N.C. State 15

Dartmouth, last season's doormat, racked up its fifth consecutive win to share the division's runnerup slot. State hit a very cold offensive streak, hitting for only 5 points thru three quarters while the Big Green remained consistent throughout. Terry Flynn and Mark Nardone did a fine job on the boards while Louise Perry played a fine defensive game for Dartmouth.

Dartmouth: Tom Kannam 10, Steve Johnson 9, Nardone 8 and Flynn 6. 13-20-33.

State: Eric Swift 5, Marc Bolan 4, Brett Larrabee 4 and John Hopwood 2. 3-12-15.

Leopards: Mark Doherty 15, Matt Ostrowski 9, Jedrezek 5 and Buss 4. 9-24-33.

Panthers: Mike Melia 16, Charlie Lowe 6 and Glenn Livermore 4. 20-6-26.

Jaguars 29, Lions 19

The Jaguars also used a big third period in picking up their seventh consecutive victory. Trailing 8-7 at the half, the Jaguars ran off 15 unanswered points to open the second half and ice the game. Shawn Ferris led the rally with rebounding as did Fran Lano with defense.

Jaguars: Brian Mackey 20, Dan Sheehan 5, Dave Curtis 2 and Jim Lombardo 2. 7-22-29.

Lions: Greg Hopwood 12 and Mark Patti 7. 8-11-19.

Intermediate Division

Boston College opened the week by clinching at least a tie in a tough defensive battle with Harvard. Villanova remained in contention with a chance to tie the high flying Eagles.

Villanova 33, N.C. State 30

State, turning suddenly tough, threw a last period scare into defending champion Villanova before bowing out. Trailing by seven going into the final period, State pulled to within one on the strength of a fine team rally. A final Wildcat hoop and the clock finally put an end to State's upset hopes.

Villanova: Rob Harrison 14, Chuck Frazzette 8, Phil Puccia 7 and Brandon Bachner 4. 16-17-33.

State: Marc Bolan 12, John Hopwood 6, and Jim Lowe 2. 12-7-19.

Harvard: Scott Zimmerman 6, Doug Lindquist 3, Matt Wells 3, Charlie Ziegenbein 2 and Ron Lindquist 1. 3-12-15.

Northeastern 33, B.U. 28

The Huskies finally cracked the win column in topping B.U. The game was tight throughout with period scores of 8-7 Huskies, 13-11 B.U., and 23-22 B.U. Northeastern iced its first victory with a 11-5 bulge in the final quarter.

Northeastern: Bob French 17, Tom Middleton 11, Todd Lawrie 3 and Steve Young 2. 11-22-33.

B.U.: Jon Bram 7, Tom Powers 7, Jeff Canovitch 6, Tom Maginnis 6 and Mike Redgate 2. 13-15-28.

Dartmouth 31, Holy Cross 26

The Big Green broke open a tie at 21 entering the last period to drop the Crusaders to their third straight loss while picking up their own fourth consecutive win. Dartmouth had led by one at the quarter and two at the half before Holy Cross rallied to tie after 3 periods. The final period saw the Green outscoring the Crusaders 10-5 for the final margin.

Dartmouth: Tom Kannam 16, Steve Johnson 14 and Terry Flynn 1. 16-15-31.

Holy Cross: Rob Slayton 10, Christ Coots 9 and Billy Vickers 7. 14-12-26.

In the weekend action, B.C. left no doubt as they dropped defending champion

Chiklis Moves To Goal For Warriors

By Rick Harrison

There was good and bad news for the Andover High hockey team this past week.

The good news was a 5-3 triumph over Lawrence Central, which marked the Golden Warriors' second straight victory and their third in four games.

The bad news followed three days later, when AHS began its final tour of Merrimack Valley League teams with Wilmington and took it on the chin, 9-2.

There was more good news with the debut of senior Pete Chiklis in goal, as the converted winger stepped in net during the second period of the Central game after just three days of practice.

Chiklis played well enough to chalk up the victory, halting 10 of 12 shots, and he also did a good job against strong Wilmington despite the final score.

Chiklis was forced into emergency service after front-line goalie Dave Cullinan was sidelined with an injury and he will now share the duties with sophomore Paul Vayanos.

Why Chiklis?

Well, as one of his teammates stated: "Pete isn't afraid to throw himself in front of anything coming his way."

No goaltender could have a better endorsement.

On the offensive side, the Warriors' first line of Len Foote, Paul Farnham and Ken Southworth continued to excel, combining talents for five goals and five assists in the two games last week.

Although they haven't skated together for the entire season because of an early injury to Foote, the trio has accounted for 47 points in 11 games on 20 goals and 27 assists.

Andover, 5-3

Len Foote game AHS a quick 1-0 advantage over Lawrence Central, which had blanked Andover 2-0 in the pre-season Jamboree, notching the first of his two goals at 1:52 of the opening period.

The score came on the rebound of a Farnham shot, as Foote was camped on the doorstep in front of Central goalie Vin Carace.

Carace's outstanding work kept the Warriors from blotting ahead as much as 4-0 in the opening five minutes of play.

He kept things respectable with a point-blank save against Len Driscoll during the first minute of action, a stop on Farnham at 2:42 after Ken Southworth set up the 15-footer with a perfect rink-wide pass, and a left shoulder save on Foote's shot at 5:00.

Ed Hughes tied it 1-1 for the Red Raiders at 7:48, slipping the disc past Andover starting goalie Paul Vayanos, but soph Southworth retaliated on the powerplay for a 2-1 Golden Warrior edge at 12:51.

Co-Capt. Brian Bresnahan and Foote chalked up the assists, as AHS worked the puck crisply around the Central zone before Southworth swept home a pass off the right boards on the fly. The goal was Ken's sixth of the season.

On Dean's List

Three North Andover residents were included on the dean's list for the Fall, 1977 semester at North Shore Community College, Beverly.

They were Antonette H. Chapman, 13 Walker Road; Ronnie K. Harvey, 288 Greene St. and Henry B. Judge, 100 Marblehead St.

The shots were even 9-9 in the period, Vayanos making eight saves and Carace seven.

Central outgunned the locals 6-5 in the second period, Chiklis' baptism under fire, and LC tied it 2-2 on Hughes' unassisted powerplay goal at 3:12.

The puck was loose in the Andover zone. Both Hughes and Chiklis were in hot pursuit, and unfortunately for the Warriors Hughes got there first.

Chiklis made his best save of the stanza at the 5:30 mark, robbing Scott McPhail at point-blank range.

Andover finally broke the game open in the third period, shooting 50 percent as three of its six shots found the net.

Farnham put 'em ahead to stay at 6:52 with his 10th seasonal goal, banging home a 10-footer with defenseman Tony Cammarata assisting. The goal came just six seconds after an AHS powerplay ended.

zLen Foote followed with the eventual game-winner 47 seconds later (7:39).

Bresnahan sent Farnham winging in alone on Carace with a lead pass. The junior shifted to the left but was forced in too deep by the goalie. His shot bounced off the side of the net, but Foote trailed the play and stuffed home the rebound.

Chiklis kept it 4-2 one minute later with a fine save on Bill McKiernan's backhand from in tight.

Central caused some anxious moments with 3:36 to go, however, pulling to 4-3 when Tom Collins slammed a 50-foot slapshot that ricocheted in off the left post.

Junior Len Driscoll provided the insurance goal 39 seconds later, at 12:03, completing a fine play with linemate Mike Derby.

The pair escaped on a 2-on-1 break, Derby shoveling a pass from the left to Driscoll who snapped off a 20-foot wrist shot to the far side. The goal was Driscoll's fourth in four games.

Central managed a slim 21-20 overall shooting advantage.

Also playing well for AHS were Bill Eaton, Dave Milne, Bruce Belbin, Brian Hardy, Charlie Heseltine, Mike Anderson and the defensive trio of Phil Weeks, Mike Tanner and Steve Luby.

Wilmington, 9-2

Wilmington, now 7-3-0, broke this game open over the last two periods to complete a season series' sweep against Andover.

The Golden Warriors trailed only 2-1 after the opening 15 minutes, but Wilmington notched three goals in the middle stanza and four more in the last period.

Brian Bresnahan collected the first AHS red-lighter, his fourth of the season, during a 5-on-3 Warrior powerplay.

The goal was scored on a 45-foot slapshot that beat Wildcats' netminder Dave Gordon through a screen to his stick side.

The assists went to Tony Cammarata and Paul Farnham with 25 seconds to play in the first period.

The final AHS tally occurred in the third period, with 3:47 to play, and once again it was accomplished on the powerplay.

Paul Farnham took a faceoff pass from Len Foote and zipped a 20-foot shot into the cage.

The Golden Warriors' best chance aside

St. Robert's Retains Division Lead

By Rick Harrison

Undefeated leader St. Robert's B edged stubborn South-Baptist, 47-39, St. Augustine A belted St. Augustine B, 42-12, and Ballardvale United trimmed St. Robert's A, 38-26, in recent Senior Division play in the Andover Church Basketball League.

The results left St. Robert's B at 4-0 overall, one game ahead of co-runnersup St. Augustine A and BU in the standings.

St. Robert's B, 47-39

South Baptist gave St. Robert's B plenty of first half trouble, grabbing an 8-6 lead after one quarter and trailing only 19-17 at half.

The victors had trouble shaking S-B in the second half, building the lead slightly to 36-31 after three quarters and then outpointing South-Baptist 11-8 over the final period.

Bill Troy led five St. Robert's scorers and emerged as game-high with 15 points, including 3-or-4 free throws down the stretch.

Rookie Bob Leitch wasn't far behind with 13 points, 10 of them in the second half, while Phil Farr netted 8 points, Scott Nottle 6 and Don Lindsey 5 for the youthful leaders.

Also playing well were Tim MacLean, Dave Spychalski, Mike Murphy, Scott Andrade and John Burke.

Divisional scoring leader Steve

Rathbun, who now boasts 68 points and a 13.6 per game average, shared point honors for S-B with Tom Steadman at 10 apiece.

Everyone entered the scoring act for South-Baptist as Scott Tobey contributed 7 points, Tim Whitton 5, Art Dunleavy 4, Mike Carbone 2 and Larry Soule III had a free throw.

St. Robert's held a slim 18-17 edge in fieldgoals, but widened the gap at the foul line by hitting 11-of-23 charities to S-B's 5-of-14.

St. Augustine A, 42-12

St. Augustine A settled the outcome in this game with a 13-0 second period burst against intro-church rival St. Augustine B.

Brian McGettrick led the A attack with 12 points, nine of them in the first half.

Tim Hart chipped in 8 markers, Dave Fluet 7, Dennis Sheehan 6, Pat Beaudine 4, Ed Powers 3 and Rich Sambuco a single bucket for the well-balanced victors.

Mark Paradis tossed in 6 points for the B-team, and solo fieldgoals were contributed by Steve Farrington, Tim Madden and Mark Boyle.

Adding fine floor games for St. Augustine B were Tom Galvin, Greg Sheppard and Bob Kimmerle.

Ballardvale, 38-26

Ballardvale United won its third straight following a season-opening setback to St. Robert's B, topping St.

Robert's A at the West Junior High gym.

The score was knotted 8-8 after one quarter, but Kevin Hollenbeck and Bryan Liang sparked a 9-3 BU surge in the second quarter for a 17-11 halftime advantage.

The rivals traded baskets again in the third period, which ended 25-19, but United ripped off 13 points in the fourth stanza behind Bill Crabtree and Liang to sew up the verdict.

Kevin Hollenbeck was the lone double figure performer for BU with 11 points. Bill Crabtree and Bryan Liang added 8 apiece, Jay McLeod 5, Russ Bird 4, and single charities were swished by Kurt Jensen and Lee Hollenbeck in the third period.

Dave Brown and Carolyn Darling were other Ballardvale stalwarts.

Tom Palma led the counter-attack for St. Robert's A, notching 10 points.

Gregg Praetz chipped in 6 points, Yvan Levesque 4, Mike Leary 3, Bruce Crochetiere 2 and Barry Lemieux a free throw.

St. Robert's was forced to play the contest without two of its top scorers. A.J. McGovern and Ken Saliba

Schedule

Divisional play resumed last night at West Junior High, after TOWNSMAN presstime, with St. Robert's B facing Christ Church, Ballardvale meeting South-Baptist, and St. Augustine A dueling St. Robert's A.

Next Wednesday evening the schedule has Ballardvale vs. St. Robert's B at 6:15 p.m., St. Augustine B vs. Christ Church at 7:15, and South-Baptist vs. St. Robert's A at 8:15.

Scoring Race

Steve Rathbun's 68 points put him 10 up on second place Mark Rogers of Christ Church, who has played one less game and sports a higher 14.5 game average.

Steve Parker of St. Augustine B is third with 40 points, followed by Brian McGettrick at 36, Scott Tobey 34, Jay McLeod 32, Bill Troy 31, Bob Leitch 30 and Dave Fluet 30 points.

Named Athlete Of Week

Lisa Gottesfeld, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gottesfeld of Andover, was recently named "Athlete of the Week" at Johns Hopkins University.

A sophomore majoring in mathematical science, Lisa was the number two singles player on the Johns Hopkins Women's Varsity Tennis team, and crowned an "exciting, spirited season" with a spectacular comeback win over a Loyola opponent.

She was voted Most Improved Player in women's tennis a year earlier, and moved up from the number five position to number two. She received the same award in Women's Lacrosse.

Lisa also played field hockey in high school and is considering returning to that sport as well. She keeps in shape by playing squash.

Lisa likes tennis best when she has to "work as hard as I can."

"Generally when I'm losing a tennis match I have a much better time," she says. "Or if I am winning and it is really close, then I enjoy it."

Holy Cross 41, Northeastern 22

Holy Cross ended its three-game skid in stopping Northeastern's winning streak at one. The game was close for a half as the Crusaders enjoyed only a three point margin. Holy Cross opened the margin to 9 after three periods and then outscored the Huskies 17-7 in the last period for the final margin.

Holy Cross: Jim Terrion 11, Chris Coots 10, Rob Slayton 8, Mike Coelho 4, John Lahood 4 and Billy Vickers 4. 14-27-41.

Northeastern: Tom Middleton 11, Bob French 9 and Todd Lawrie 2. 11-11-22.

Harvard 43, B.U. 20

Harvard closed out its first half with another well-balanced scoring attack to stop Boston University. In three of its last four games the Crimson has placed every team member in the scoring column. B.U. dropped behind quickly, trailing by 13 after the first quarter, and could never seriously threaten. John Horgan and Ed Melia played fine floor games for B.U.

Harvard: Matt Wells 9, Scott Zimmerman 8, Peter Fernandes 6, Brian Bedell 4, Doug Lindquist 4, Ron Lindquist 4, Gene Sullivan 4 and Charlie Ziegenbein 4. 23-30-43.

B.U.: Tom Powers 11, Tom Maginnis 6 and Jeff Canovitch 3. 8-12-20.

Senior Division

The Lakers continue to lead the division with a perfect 4-0 record. The Bullets are one-half game off the pace at 4-1.

Bullets 34, Knicks 30

The Bullets remained hot on the heels of the Lakers in topping the Knicks. Trailing by six going into the final quarter, the Bullets rallied to outscore the Knicks 16-6 for the final margin. John Stahl controlled the boards while Joe Buzzett played fine defense for the winners. Gary Sanderson did a fine job on the Knicks boards while Bob Foley quarterbacked the offense.

Bullets: Jeff Saulnier 20, Chris Connor 4, Jay Robbins 4, Stahl 4 and Chris Valcourt 2. 10-24-34.

Knicks: Tom Haskard 12, Dave Fluet 10, Foley 4, Brian Curley 2 and Sanderson 2. 15-15-30.

Hawks 29, Nets 19

The Hawks cracked the win column in dropping the Nets to their fourth straight loss. Trailing by two at the half, the Hawks ran off six unanswered straight loss. Trailing by two at the half, the Hawks ran off six unanswered points at the end of the third period and then outscored the Nets 13-7 in the last quarter for the final margin.

Hawks: Tim Hart 9, Jeff Lindquist 9, Bob Curtin 6, Joe Zemis 4 and Glen Johnson 1. 7-22-29.

Nets: Tom Stedman 8, Kevin Wilson 6, Mike Blair 2, Mark Rosen 2 and Jim Dietzel 1. 9-10-19.

Lakers 49, Kings 32

In the battle of the unbeaten, the Lakers won convincingly. The Lakers broke open a tie at 24 at the half, running off 9 unanswered hoops in the third quarter to ice the victory. The Kings finally broke the scoring ice again in the final period, but the bulge was too much to overcome.

Lakers: Ted Liszewski 14, Glenn Acciardi 10, Connie Twomey 8, Dennis Glynn 6, Barry Bloom 4, Jay Flynn 4, Bob Kimmerle 2 and Todd Young 1. 24-25-49.

Kings: E. J. Perry 12, Scott Tobey 8, Dave Newman 6, Eric Fredette 4 and Barry Goodman 2. 24-8-32.

In last Monday's action, the Knicks, Bullets and Celtics all picked up one-half game on the inactive division-leading Lakers.

Knicks 30, Nets 27

The Knicks evened their record at 2-2 in edging the winless Nets. Leading by only one at the half, the Knicks ran off three unanswered hoops to close the third quarter. The Nets rallied in the final period, outscoring the Knicks 10-6 for the final margin. Bob Foley was the Knicks rebounding leader while Roger Henderson hit a key second half hoop.

Knicks: Tom Haskard 15, Dave Fluet 6, Rob Kochakian 4, Foley 3 and Henderson 2. 16-14-30.

Nets: Mike MacDonald 12, Tom Stedman 8, Kevin Wilson 4, Mike Blair 2 and Jim Dietzel 1. 15-12-27.

Bullets 34, Kings 24

The Bullets dropped the Kings to their second straight defeat. The Bullets led wire-to-wire in picking up their fourth victory. The Bullets won the battle of the boards with Jeff Saulnier, John Stahl and Chris Connor doing the work while the Bullets defense was keyed by the Robbins twins, Jay and John. Dan Donovan and Larry Strassburg had fine gfloor games for the Kings.

Bullets: Saulnier 17, Connor 6, Stahl 4, John Robbins 3, Jay Robbins 2 and Frank Ferris 2. 18-16-34.

Kings: E. J. Perry 10, Barry Goodman 5, Scott Tobey 3, Donovan 2, Eric Fredette 2 and Hugh Meier 2. 9-15-214.

Celtics 35, Hawks 22

The defending champion Celtics evened their record at .500 in stopping the Hawks. Leading by seven at the half, the Celtics outscored the Hawks 14-6 in the third period and then coasted. The Green placed all team members in the scoring column in picking up their win, the first Senior Division team to do so this season.

Celtics: Mike Yuska 19, Bob Emberley 4, Adam Wise 4, John Barrett 2, Ben Bram 2, John McLellan 2, Jay Clementi 1 and Jack Kramer 1. 13-22-35.

Hawks: Tim Hart 12, Bob Curtin 4, Mark Haddad 4 and Joe Zemis 2. 6-16-22.

Ski Classes To Begin

Adult and teen ski classes sponsored by the Andover Community Schools will begin Friday night at the Merrimack Valley Ski Area. The four lesson series includes a one hour lesson and evening ski ticket for the series. Rentals are also available.

Registration can be made at the ski lodge on Hampshire Road, Methuen from 6:30 - 7:30 prior to the first class. Additional information is available at the Recreation Office or the ski area.

Girl's Hoop Clinic Is Saturday

The Recreation Community Schools Departments Elementary School Girls Basketball League will hold its clinic this Saturday during the regularly scheduled times, at the Sanborn School. The clinic has been postponed twice over the past two weekends due to snowstorms. As a result of the re-scheduling, league competition will not get underway until Saturday, Feb. 11. All games will be played at the Bancroft School.

"Safe starting, stopping and cornering in winter weather depends on the grip a few square inches of rubber can get on wet, icy, or snow-covered pavement. It's worth the extra time and effort to make sure that grip is as tight as it can be."

Warrior Hockey

from the goals was by junior wing Mike Anderson, whose breakaway shot was smothered by second period goalie Scott O'Connell at the 11:30 mark.

Wilmington was led by Bill Blaisdell, Todd Richards and Paul Sullivan with two goals apiece while Brian Tighe, Steve Mickle and Tom Garcia added one each.

The Wildcats held a wide 42-12 shooting edge on Andover.

Pete Chiklis kicked out 32 shots, making several saves of the spectacular variety.

Schedule

Andover returned to the wars last night,

Mickey Mantle holds the major league strike out record — 1,710 times.

after TOWNSMAN presstime, facing red-hot Tewksbury. The Redmen had won five straight and were 9-2-0 overall.

This Saturday Andover tangles with Austin Prep at 12:30 p.m. at the Billerica Forum. Former AHS goalie Dave Hill, who transferred to AP this year, has been outstanding in goal for the Cougars.

Next Wednesday the Warriors will face Methuen High at the Rangers' high school fieldhouse rink (7 p.m.).

Theresa Manzi Amore Certified Hearing Aid Consultant

If you suspect you have a hearing loss, or know someone in your family who does, contact Amore Hearing Consultants with offices in Room 315, Bay State Bldg., 11 Lawrence Street, Lawrence.

Theresa Manzi Amore is a Certified Hearing Aid Consultant. She can give a complete hearing test in her office, or in your home if you prefer. After a thorough hearing check-up, Mrs. Amore will be able to evaluate the loss of hearing involved and will recommend corrective treatment, medically, acoustically or both.

Mrs. Amore specializes in children's hearing problems. An Andover resident, she has been testing the hearing of children in St. Augustine's school, Andover, for the past 24 years. She is eager to help the children, having raised a daughter of her own, who now holds an M.A. from Lesley College. Current state assistance supplies a hearing aid for any child in the Commonwealth who requires it. Mrs. Amore also caters to the hearing needs of Medicaid patients.

Amore Hearing Consultants carries hearing aids by the top manufacturers in the country. Mrs. Amore specializes in personal fitting of Dynatone hearing aids. And in order to meet the needs of her patients more fully, her office now carries Zenith and Maico, in addition to the Sonotone line for which she has been well known in this area for the past 26 years.

Newest hearing aids include the all-in-the-ear-canal, the eyeglass model, post auricle aids, etc. Amore Hearing Consultants also carry batteries and accessories and service all makes of hearing aids.

A hearing test is free and could open up a whole new world for someone you know! Call for an appointment — Amore Hearing Consultants, 682-4730.

Lawrence Tops Bantams, 5-3

By Rick Harrison

Although last weekend's record snowfall put another crimp in the Andover Bantam A traveling hockey team's schedule, the locals did manage a Sunday game against the pesky Lawrence Bantams at Merrimack College.

Coach Dick Neal's crew was again unable to get untracked, dropping a tight 5-3 decision to the neighboring team.

The loss left Andover with a 1-4-0 regular season record, and a 3-7-0 ledger including five pre-season contests.

A game listed against Brunswick, Maine last Saturday was wiped out by the storm and re-scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 4 at the Phillips-Academy Rink (6 p.m.).

Lawrence, 5-3

Andover broke on top early when J. J. Pellegrino netted his fifth seasonal goal, and first of two in this game at 1:04 of the opening period.

Pellegrino pumped home the rebound of a shot by defenseman Tom Hetley, as J.J. was stationed five feet from the Lawrence net near the left post.

Scott Heseltine, back from an injury suffered the previous week, showed no ill effects as he also chalked up an assist.

Lawrence, winning its second game in three tries against the locals, tied the contest 1-1 on a 15-foot screen shot at 5:04, then took the lead four minutes later on a deflected 20-footer.

Andover battled back for a 2-2 deadlock on George Price's first goal of the season at 4:43 of the second period.

Price, a rookie Bantam elevated from the Pee Wee A squad, jammed a second rebound through the goalie's legs from the top of the crease. Rookie linemate Pete Dunn registered the lone assist.

Lawrence regained the lead for good a mere 14 seconds later, at 4:57, drilling a clean slapshot past Andover goalie Dave Leitch following a flurry of activity around the locals' cage.

The eventual game-winner came at 10:35 of the middle session on a 10-foot shot, enabling Lawrence to carry a 4-2 lead into the final period.

The winners collected their final red-lighter at 7:46 of the third stanza, before Pellegrino retaliated for Andover on the powerplay at 9:20 to cap the scoring.

Pete Dunn handed out his second assist of the game on Pellegrino's sixth seasonal score.

"Leitch played a good game in goal, as did Pellegrino on left wing," observed Neal. "The return of Heseltine was a plus, but Craig Hyslip was out with the flu."

"The biggest problem in the game was that we gave the puck away in the defensive zone far too many times," added Neal.

Andover also failed to capitalize on several powerplay chances, as Lawrence was especially frisky and took two minor penalties, a double minor, a major and a misconduct.

Schedule

Andover returned to action last Tuesday night, after TOWNSMAN presstime, hosting the Worcester Bantams at Merrimack.

The next game is tomorrow against Medford in Winthrop.

The locals host Pittsfield this Sunday at 9 a.m. at Phillips Academy, then travel to Newburyport next Tuesday night for a 7 p.m. encounter.

Racers Make Tracks Then Complete

The second district race of the Koch cross country ski league in Lincoln Saturday, Jan. 21, was a test of stamina and good cheer — as well as of speed.

Racers arrived to find the track setting snowmobile inoperable in the deep snow. The boys and girls had to pack about 8 kilometers of track before turning around to race over much of the same terrain.

Those placing in their classes included DeeDee O'Neil — 10th; Mark Perlowski — 6th; Hilly French — 4th. Honorable mentions: Moira Kiley, Mark Sullivan, Tom and Jerry Witt.

The Andover Koch group will next meet at the football field at Phillips Academy on Saturday, Jan. 28 at 10. As a ski tour is planned, parents are especially encouraged to participate. Newcomers are welcome. Additional information is available from Moor and Mountain.

Skaters Win Badges

Skaters from Andover and No. Andover who are enrolled in the Basic Badge Program of the Wilmington Figure Skating Club were tested in December with the following results:

Andover: Badge 2, Christine Gargalowitz, Stephanie Pucak, Gillian Mahon; Badge 3, June Knowles, Amy Knowles, Christine Gould; Badge 4, Joanne Convey, Deidre Cullen, Tracey Knowles; Badge 5, Anne Taylor; Badge 6, Linda Seiter.

No. Andover: Badge 4, Maryellen Markey; Badge 10, Donna Henry, Adrienne Brucato; Badge 11, Irene Manning.

Earn Honors At Academy

Four Andover girls have received honors for the first quarter at Our Lady of Nazareth Academy in Wakefield.

Earning second honors was Ellen Perocchi, a junior, and third honors, Laurel LoPresti, a sophomore, and Lisa Reynolds and Carla Rizzo, freshmen.

By DOUGLAS N. HOWE

REALTOR

SELL HOME YOURSELF?

I'm sure you've heard it said: "Why should I sell my home through a REALTOR? I can sell it myself and save a lot of money." Right? Wrong!

This kind of thinking usually turns out to be financially unwise. The prospects will usually start by mentally deducting the commission and then start negotiating from there. On the average, a homeowner saves NO money when he sells his own home. In fact, the opposite is true. Studies over a ten year period show that the net proceeds from owner-sold property are LESS than the REALTOR-sold piece of real estate, even after the payment of commission.

As a private seller you're at a great disadvantage in the intricate areas of financing, negotiating and protecting yourself from all sorts of do-it-yourself pitfalls. You've got a lot invested in your home. It makes sense to list it with a REALTOR. He'll sell it for you — without hitches — for the best price and in the shortest amount of time.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 PUNCHARD AVE., ANDOVER. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

"Serving the NORTH SHORE for over 45 years"

HUNNEMAN and Company, Inc. is one of the best known, most respected real estate firms in New England. Its reputation for responsibility and competence is its most carefully safeguarded asset.

HUNNEMAN AND COMPANY HAS SEVEN BRANCH OFFICES IN THE NORTH SHORE, THEREBY OFFERING MORE LISTINGS AND GREATER SERVICE THAN ANY OTHER REAL ESTATE FIRM IN THAT AREA. IF YOU WANT TO BUY A HOME ON THE NORTH SHORE, "GO TO HUNNEMAN"! MOST OF THE NORTH SHORE COMMUNITIES ARE SERVED BY HUNNEMAN'S CONVENIENT OFFICES IN: ANDOVER, TOPSFIELD, SO. HAMILTON, MARBLEHEAD, GLOUCESTER, NEWBURYPORT AND MANCHESTER.

Hunneman's residential offices maintain an inter-office referral system that permits home-buyers, who can't find what they want in one town, to be shown what's available in up to 50 other Boston-area communities. And, as a member of eight multiple listing services (MLS) as well as having close contacts with other leading REALTOR offices, Hunneman and Company can show you virtually any listed house in the Boston suburban area.

School Budget

its electric heat. Hart said it was safe to assume that the high school heating cost is three to four times what it would be if it were oil. He said it would be impossible to convert to oil now, but that oil heat could be put in an addition.

Ahouse asked if there were any insulating techniques that could be added to cut costs, and Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert replied that he and Acting Town Manager Sheldon Cohen had been discussing hiring an energy conservation specialist through CETA.

Hart said the Town of Concord has made great strides in energy conservation by hiring such a full-time person.

Hart noted that because of the new "flat-rate" basis for water and sewer, school costs would increase by about 27 percent, but should remain at the $18,000 amount because of savings in consumption.

He said they had found many leaks and broken pipes under buildings, including one "million dollar leak" at Bancroft where a valve in the air conditioning system had been running "for lord knows how long."

Hart asked for replacement of a 1972

Ford pickup truck for the maintenance department, claiming that "people honestly don't like to drive the old one."

He also asked for a $10,000 increase for grounds improvements, brining that item up to $21,000.

Hart said the money could be spent on fencing, paving, walks, lawns, trees, shrubbery and the like, as well as possible parking alongside the high school tennis courts and at South School.

Committeeman Joseph Finn applauded Hart's attempt to improve the grounds, contending that people in town make an effort to keep up their properties, and that the West Jr. High lawn, which Ahouse referred to as a "dandelion field," was particularly an eyesore, which must detract from the surrounding neighborhood. The heating and ventilation budget was lowered $32,000 primarily, Hart said, because of repair work that has been accomplished so far. A heating, ventilating and air conditioning mechanic was put on board last year.

The roofing budget was dropped $14,000 also, Hart said, because many repairs have been made, and no major work is anticipated for the near term. Improvements are planned for the low sections of shingled roofs at Bancroft and some areas of the 1970 West Elementary wing.

Some $14,100 was also dropped from "painting," in anticipation of a new position.

Fred Fitzgerald, one of the Finance Committee overseers of the school budget process, said Tuesday night that the schools have never spent an adequate amount on maintenance, and that the rear of East Jr. High School is a "disgrace."

He said the town has a $30 million school plant, but has been neglecting it for 20 years.

Ahouse replied that the town will be paying for some time for past neglects — including a minimum of $2 million just to bring East up to system standards. The first step toward improvements, he said, was bringing Hart on board a year ago, and he noted that they were making major strides in the maintenance area.

Ahouse had also called Hart's budget presentation "the best" he's seen in all the school budget deliberations he's been through.

The committee will continue to take up portions of the budget every Tuesday.

Lecture

"The Decade of the Woman; What Should We Look For?" will be the topic of a lecture by Sr. Mary Rita Grady CSJ presented by the Christian Formation Center on Tuesday, Jan. 31 at 7:30 p.m.

Advance tickets will be available at the Christian Formation Center, River Road, Andover or at the door.

Andover's next race will be held on Sunday, Jan. 29, at Merrimack Valley Ski Area in Methuen versus the Merrimack Valley Buddy Werner Team. The race is expected to begin promptly at 9 a.m. All racers should be at the hill as early as possible so that they may register, pick up their bibs and have an opportunity to study the course. In the event of no-snow conditions and the necessity for a change of locations, all racers will be contacted. All racers are to be reminded that in order to be considered as an entrant for the Tri-State Qualifying Race and the Eastern Massachusetts Championship Race, they must have participated in two of the four regular season races.

The next scheduled snow practice will be held at Bradford Ski Area on Wednesday, Feb. 1, from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. There will be a meeting of the Parents of the Andover Ski Club during the practice.
